DAY 2: STOCKHOLM AND THE ICEBAR

Today you'll have a whole day to explore the capital city. Although Stockholm is a capital city it is easy to get around by foot and there are many nice parks to stroll through for a relaxing break between the activities. Visit some of the many museums and art galleries, go shopping or visit the Royal Mews, there you will find the finest collection in the world of 19th century carriages.

In the evening you will get to visit the famous ICEBAR, the world's first permanent ice bar that will give you an exotic experience. Provided with a warm cape and gloves you will comfortably enjoy an Absolut Vodka cocktail of your choice from the drink menu, served in an ice glass, in a temperature that is always -5°C. The entire interior including the glasses is made from 100% pure clear ice from the Torne River in Swedish Lapland. This is a 40 minute experience.
